That whiskey and money have both been freely used in Southwest Virginia in recent elections, seems to be the opinion of the man, who spoke so confidentely of what might be expected hereafter in that part of the State. He seemed thoroughly conversant with many phases of the situation, and seemed to be of the opinion that some surprise of no mean order would be sprung when the Lea county taxes. be sprung when the Lee county inves-tigation is begun in Dickinson.

In a decision of the Interstate Com-merce Commission made public hore to-day, the Parker Manufacturing Company, the "one buggy company," and other makers of vehicles at Suffolk will not hereafter be allowed a better and more advantageous ship-ping rate than those concerns operat-ing at Franklin and elsewhere in that classification territory.

For some time the commission has had under advisement the question of whether the lowering of rates some time ago by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, which favored the Suffolk concerns, was fair to vehicle manufacturers at Franklin, who came in competition with those at Suffolk. Today the commission decided that hereafter there shall be no difference and no preference given to Suffolk concerns to the disadvantage of those elsewhere. For some time the commission has
